Cost: $30 per Girl Scout

$20 for family members to see the show

Girl Scout/Family tickets: General seating

Participate in a live theatre workshop before an actual production!

Girl Scouts will have the opportunity to go behind the scenes of a full-length musical.

Limited space available -- register early!!

Workshop offers some activities from several badges and is led by Arts & Learning Conservatory.

Workshop details:

- Theatre workshop (45 minutes): Girls will have a theater tour, meet the cast and hear from the director during this workshop; 1 – 2 adult chaperones must join the troop during the workshop. There will be a 15-minute break prior to the show where girls may purchase snacks and drinks. Scout rate includes reserved admission to the show following the workshop (general seating), and a theater patch.
- Additional adults/siblings may attend the show with their group at a rate of $18.
- Badge connections: Arts & Learning will provide activities that fulfill some requirements for the following badges during the workshop:
  - Brownies – Dancer
  - Juniors – Playing the Past
  - Cadettes – Public Speaker
  - Seniors – Troupe Performer
- Girls will need to complete additional activities to finalize badges in their troop.
- Workshop will be before the Saturday 2:00pm performance.
- Tickets are available to purchase without the theatre workshop at <https://www.artsandlearning.org/tickets/>
- Anyone may attend any of the shows, but the workshop will be offered only before the 2:00pm June 25 performance.

Pre-registration and pre-payment is required, and space is reserved on a first come, first served basis. Girl Scouts and their parents or troops may register. Group minimum is 6 Scouts. To reserve space, please fill out the form below and email to: TMORRISON@artsandlearning.org.
