GOSPEL VOICES OF OC

Sat, June 8, 2024 | 7 P.M.

Exclusive performance by a multi-Grammy nominated guest!

Join us for an extraordinary event, chronicling the lives of African American artistic masters across choral, dance, band, and theater. In its third season, Gospel Voices of OC commemorates June 19, 1865, to present day. This year, as we honor women who shaped history, come and experience a Juneteenth celebration of freedom and excellence, sure to inspire all people of all ages.

GOSPEL VOICES OF OC

Sat, June 8, 2024 • 7 P.M.

Dear Conservatory Partner,

I trust this letter finds you in excellent health and high spirits. I write to express my admiration for your unwavering dedication to fostering positive transformation and enhancing the lives of individuals and communities, here in Orange County, truly commendable.

It is with great joy that I seek your gracious support and collaboration for the community-wide signature event that I have produced called: "Gospel Voices of OC: a Juneteenth Event". In its third season, this special premiere will occur on June 8th, 7pm, at the Musco Center on the campus of Chapman University. From chorale to dance, band, and theater, experience African American artistic mastery like never before. Join us as we pay homage to trailblazing women who've shaped history, making Juneteenth a jubilant celebration of freedom and excellence. Don't miss this unforgettable fusion of talent and triumph!

Our enthusiasm for the partnership with you stems from our belief that your mission harmoniously resonates with our own objectives, which include the promotion of cultural enrichment, arts, and education.

Once more, I extend my heartfelt appreciation for your steadfast commitment to effecting positive change, and I am genuinely thrilled about our meaningful partnership.

Sincerely,

Debora Wondercheck
