When the seasons change, the winds change, too, reminding us to be a bit more carefree. If you find yourself feeling a bit like George Banks these days or feel that life is way too serious to enjoy the little things, and this show might have you acting silly for no reason other than sheer fun.

Magic is not only magicians, and our youth will remind you with their powerful performances. Under the direction of Jenny Moon Shaw, our fantastic cast of 37 local youth bring the spirit of unity to life in this show-stopping performance of Mary Poppins, the musical production.

"These children bring the feeling of the storyline of believing in the magic hidden in the ordinary day to day life. This cast captures this message quite beautifully," Veteran Director, Jenny Moon Shaw.

What else makes this production even more special is the [supercalifragilisticexpialidocious] Spectacular dance numbers. This is an element special to this group and a must-see! If the cold winds are sending you inside to hibernate, then Step in Time! And join us for one of the best all-time favorites of Mary Poppins!
